

Jesus in the Air

FOR MILITARY / CHAPLAIN LEADERS

A direct, compassionate novel of a soldier's homecoming, moral weight, and a day in the company of Jesus.

OVERVIEW

"I meet Jesus on the day I get home from the war."

Warren Pease, a young U.S. Army sniper coming home from Iraq, spends one summer day on the New Hampshire coast in the company of Ray, a stranger Warren knows as Jesus. Their walk threads ordinary moments with hard memories, drawing Warren through strained relationships, grief, responsibility, and the moral weight of war.

Plainspoken, serious, and humane, Jesus in the Air opens conversation about war's aftermath, faith, forgiveness, moral burden, and what coming home may require.

POTENTIAL GROUP SETTINGS

- Unit and base chaplains leading reading or discussion groups
- Military ministries and hospitality-house leaders serving service members and families
- Groups of service members, spouses, veterans, or cadets with different beliefs
- Reading groups discussing war's aftermath, grief, responsibility, and forgiveness

DISCUSSION RESOURCES

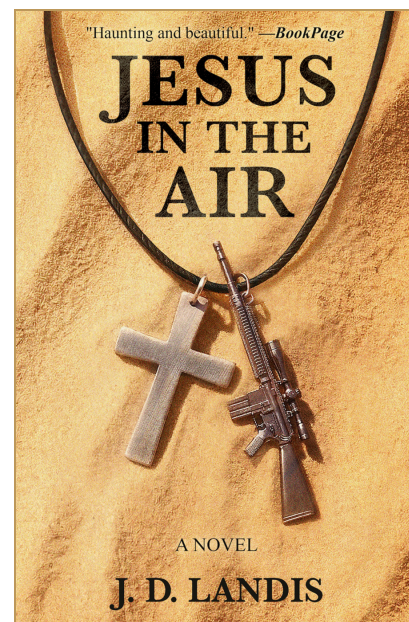

- Questions about moral responsibility, grief, identity, and relationships
- Discussion grounded in the novel's events, choices, and consequences
- Guidance on letting participants pass and keeping discussion focused on the text
- Plans for excerpt-based and full-book groups

Content information is available at jesusintheair.com/content-advisory.

READING GROUP KIT

Ready-to-use Book Discussion Guide, Facilitator Guide, and non-graphic Excerpt Pack available for group use.

jesusintheair.com/reading-group-kit

PRAISE

"A powerful story of one young man's faith, failings, and redemption."

— LIBRARY JOURNAL

"Haunting and beautiful, rippling with skillfully intertwined themes of faith, love, religion and war."

— BOOKPAGE

"The comfort that Pease takes in [Jesus'] presence is palpable."

— THE VALLEY NEWS

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

J. D. Landis is an award-winning novelist, former editor-in-chief of William Morrow, and author of Lying in Bed and Longing.

BOOK DETAILS

Paperback 358 pp • $16.99 • ISBN 979-8-9852305-3-6

Hardcover 358 pp • $26.99 • ISBN 979-8-9852305-4-3

Kindle ebook $9.99 • ISBN 979-8-9852305-2-9

Publication March 28, 2027 • 5.5" × 8.5" trim

LINKS & CONTACT

Book Details

jesusintheair.com/buy

Contact Ben Landis

Email contact@jdlandis.com